Q.4. Search Ad Copy (Provide the screenshot of Search Ad Copy for Mobile and Desktop)

Q.5. Quality Score

(Suggest 3 possible ways of improving the quality score of your campaign with suitable justification)

Improvement	Justification
Use highly relevant keywords	Choosing keywords that closely match the products and services (e.g., "Buy Barbie Dolls Online", "Original Barbie Dolls") improves ad relevance and increases the Quality Score.
Create compelling and relevant ad copy	Including the target keywords in the headlines and descriptions makes the ad more relevant to users, improves the expected click-through rate (CTR), and enhances the Quality Score.
Improve the landing page experience	Ensure the landing page loads quickly, is mobile-friendly, and provides content that matches the ad. A better user experience increases user satisfaction and contributes to a higher Quality Score.

Q.8. Display Ad Copy (Provide the screenshot of Display Ad Copy for Mobile and Desktop)

Q.9. Targeting Parameters

(List down the targeting parameters selected for the campaign from Demographics, Affinity Interests, In-market Interests, Placements & Devices. Provide the relevant justification for selecting these targeting parameters)

Targeting Parameter	Selected Targeting	Justification
Demographics	Age: 18–44, Gender: All, Parents	Adults and parents are the primary buyers of Barbie dolls and gifts for children.
Affinity Interests	Toy Lovers, Shopping Enthusiasts, Family Focused	These users are generally interested in toys, family products, and online shopping, making them more likely to engage with the ad.
In-Market Interests	Toys & Games, Gifts & Occasions, Children's Products	These audiences are actively researching or planning to purchase toys and gifts, increasing the likelihood of conversions.
Placements	Google Display Network websites, YouTube, Gmail	Displaying ads across Google's partner websites, YouTube, and Gmail helps increase visibility and reach a broader audience.
Devices	Mobile, Desktop, Tablet	Running ads on multiple device types ensures maximum reach, as users browse and shop across different devices.

Q.10. Click Through Rate

(Suggest 3 possible ways of improving the CTR of your display campaign with proper justification.)

Ways to Improve CTR	Justification
Use attractive images and creatives	High-quality and visually appealing images capture users' attention, making them more likely to click on the display ad.
Write compelling headlines with a clear CTA	Headlines such as "Shop Barbie Dolls Today" or "Explore the Latest Barbie Collection" along with a CTA like "Shop Now" encourage users to click the ad.
Target the right audience	Showing ads to users who are interested in toys, gifts, or shopping (using demographics, affinity, and in-market audiences) increases ad relevance and improves the Click-Through Rate (CTR).

Q.11. Summary of the project

(Write a summary of entire project within 250 words mentioning the important parameters of the campaigns such as budget, bid strategy, targeting, campaign structure etc.)

This project involved creating both a Google Search Campaign and a Google Display Campaign to promote a Barbie Dolls website. The primary objective of the campaigns was to increase website traffic, improve brand awareness, and encourage online purchases. A daily budget of ₹500 was selected with the Maximize Clicks bid strategy to generate the maximum number of visits within the available budget.

For the Search Campaign, relevant keywords with different match types were selected to reach users actively searching for Barbie dolls and related products. Responsive search ads were created using engaging headlines, descriptions, and sitelink extensions to improve ad relevance and user engagement.

For the Display Campaign, visually attractive image ads were designed with clear headlines, descriptions, and a strong call-to-action. The campaign targeted users based on demographics, affinity interests, in-market interests, placements, and devices to reach the most relevant audience.

To improve campaign performance, best practices such as selecting relevant keywords, creating compelling ad copy, improving the landing page experience, using attractive creatives, and refining audience targeting were considered. Overall, the campaign was structured to maximize visibility, improve Click-Through Rate (CTR), enhance Quality Score, and achieve better advertising performance while staying within the allocated budget.
